

UHS MEDIA CENTER VIDEO COLLECTION

200s RELIGION & MYTHOLOGY

200 Fai	Faith and belief (VHS) [videorecording] : five major world religions	VHS	Presents a brief summary of Judaism, Christianity, Islam, Hinduism, and Buddhism. Designed to help students understand what is unique and what is common to each of these religions.
289.773 Ami	The Amish [videorecording]	VHS	One of a 15-part series that celebrates the heritage of different cultural groups by tracing the history of their emigration to North America. Adapted from the "Peoples of North America" series of books by Chelsea House Publishers.
292 Gre	Greek and Roman legends(VHS) [videorecording]	VHS	This program introduces the principal Greek & Roman legends, examining the differences between Greek legends, which combine victory with difficulty & loss, with those of Rome, which place nationalism, heroism, & virtue above any personal human ties. The stories of mythology & legend covered are: Peleus & Thetis; sacrifice of Iphigenia; Trojan War; Achilles' choice; Odysseus & Trojan horse; Jason & golden fleece, Aeneas, Romulus & Remus; Horatius and others.
292 Myt	Mythology in literary culture /VHS (Videotape)	DVD	Explores different mythological archetypes throughout classical literature, film, and art. Hosted by two teenagers.
292.13 Gre	Greek mythology [videorecording].	DVD
299.936 LRo	L. Ron Hubbard [videorecording] : an introduction to scientology.	DVD	An interview with L. Ron Hubbard describing the basic tenets of the Scientology religious philosophy.